

Declaration of Ecclesiastical Right to Bear Arms

I, jonathan-daniel: clements, hereby declare and affirm the sacred right to bear arms for the protection of my life, family, trust, and sacred estate. This right is held under divine law and cannot be infringed by man-made codes or statutes.

This includes the right to:

- Keep and bear arms for defense and preservation
- Train and educate beneficiaries in responsible defense
- Refuse registration, licensure, or surveillance

This right is retained without waiver, dilution, or compromise.

Sealed in private ecclesiastical authority. No witness required.

Ecclesiastical Notice of Exemption from Military Service or Conscription

To all agents, officers, and organizations, be advised:

I, jonathan-daniel: clements, am under ecclesiastical office and sacred duty and therefore exempt from any form of draft, enlistment, or conscription into military or enforcement service.

As a man of spiritual guardianship, I shall not serve under force of arms in any worldly military regime.

This exemption extends to all ecclesiastical trust beneficiaries and successors.

This notice is irrevocable.

Sealed in private ecclesiastical authority. No witness required.

Declaration of Ecclesiastical Protection of Sacred Texts and Knowledge

Let it be known that all sacred writings, texts, scrolls, personal journals, correspondence, and encoded messages entrusted to jonathan-daniel: clements or the Ecclesiastical Sovereign Living

Trust are hereby declared private, protected, and outside of any public domain or seizure.

This includes:

- Ecclesiastical writings
- Spiritual declarations
- Private family records and trust doctrines

Unauthorized access or confiscation is a trespass upon sacred ground.

Sealed in private ecclesiastical authority. No witness required.
